Tuition for a child entering a program mid-year shall be based on the number of months left in the school year. For each month (or partial month) left in the program, 10% of the total yearly tuition for the program will be charged. A full registration fee is charged for children entering the program mid-year.

In general the school does not allow children enrolled in extra program classes to change from one day of the week to another. In certain circumstances the school may allow such a change to take place. There is a $10 charge per child for the first such change. If a child's extra program day is moved more than once, or more than one day is changed there will be a charge of $25 for each change made.

Enclosed is a non-refundable deposit. I wish to sign my child up for the above marked extra programs in accordance with Striar Hebrew Academy's Policies.
